a) Letter of thanks

Members noted a letter of thanks received from Amanda Fenoughty following action taken by the County Council on a number of highway issues.

b) The Highways Manager has responded to request for a barrier to be erected adjacent to the narrow pavement on the A60 Highway near to "Casio's". Alternative proposals are being investigated.

c) County Councillor Rhodes indicated his support for a funding application under the County Council's "Supporting Local Communities Fund" for improvement work at the Civic Centre. In addition, Councillor Rhodes reported on recent financial application support given to the Youth Centre and to the Luncheon Club.

Members were also informed that Councillor Rhodes is a recently appointed Governor at the Kingston Park Academy and that Councillor S. Scotthorne has also been appointed.

RESOLVED that 1) the application for the supporting Local Communities fund be noted and approved

2) the contributions made by Councillor Rhodes to local organisations be noted with thanks

- 3) the Kingston Park Academy Governor appointments be welcomed.
- 4) further representation be made on improved highway signage for the Civic Centre

68. BASSETLAW DISTRICT COUNCIL ISSUES

Smoking in Children's Play Areas

Members considered proposals being made by the District Council for a voluntary ban on smoking in children's play parks.

Whilst there would be no legal enforcement the District Council would be willing to provide signs to be placed in and around play areas highlighting that smoking in that area was not allowed.

RESOLVED that

- 1) the District Council proposals be supported
- 2) this initiative be publicised in the next edition of "Carlton News"

69. SUB COMMITTEE MEETINGS

a) Finance and Risk Assessment – 30th November 2016

Members considered the minutes and recommendations contained therein along with additional comment on budget proposals for the financial year April 2017 to March 2018. Members also considered a schedule of projected income and expenditure for that year.

RESOLVED that

- 1) the minutes of the Finance and Risk Assessment Sub Committee meeting held on the 30th November 2016 be approved.
- 2) the budgeted income and expenditure levels for 2017/2018 be approved and the Council Tax Precept for the Parish remain at £95.

b) Environmental Working Party – 30th November 2016

RESOLVED that the minutes of the Working Party Meeting held on the 30th November 2016 be approved.

c) Burial Ground Sub-Committee – 7th December 2016

The Clerk reported on issues considered by the Sub-Committee in relation to the development of the Hundred Acre Lane site.

RESOLVED that the report and the minutes of the Burial Ground Sub-Committee held on the 7th December 2016 be noted and recommendations contained therein be approved.
