57. BASSETLAW DISTRICT COUNCIL ISSUES

i) B.T. Telephones

B.T. has consulted the District Council regarding the current programme of intended public payphone removals.

There are currently 43 public payphones in the District 2 of which are within the Carlton Parish.

One is sited at Sycamore Road/Lime Tree Avenue and has been used on 3 occasions during the last 12 months, the other is sited in Long Lane and has been used 188 times during the last 12 months.

RESOLVED that

- 1) on the basis of usage level, B.T. be requested to continue the service at Long Lane
- 2) insofar as the service at Sycamore Road is concerned, the Council acknowledge the minimal use but request whether or not it would be feasible for the Parish Council to make a financial contribution towards the retention of the service.

ii) Other Issues

- a) Councillor Carrington-Wilde to enquire on the availability of funding for continuation of football facility provision from the Football Association.
- b) Councillor Wilde be thanked for prompt action on other District Council's Issues raised previously
- c) Councillor Wilde agreed to make further enquiries on the ongoing problem of fly-tipping at Crossley Hill Lane.
